H. B. M. Consulate-General,

Shanghai.

25th. April, 1929.

My dear Aiers,

With reference to the enclosed note on Hermann Henrich Fischer who recently applied at the Passport Office of H.B.M. Consulate-General, Shanghai, for a Transit Visa to pass through Singapore and Hong Kong enroute to the Dutch East Indies, I should be grateful if you would kindly let me know whether you have any information about this individual. He was in Moscow in March, 1929 and is apparently regarded with some suspicion by the Dutch Authorities.

Yours sincerely,

C.H. Hallal.

FISCHER: HERMANN HEINRICH

Holds German passport No. 237/29. Granted at Altona, Wandsbeck on 8.2.29.

Born 30.4.1894.

Stated thereon to be a seaman.

Passport only bears Russian Transit visa granted at Moscow on 13th March 1929 No. 300169 for journey to China and Polish Transit visa No. 776/29 granted on 27th March, 1929.

Arrived recently in China, stating that he had come to see his brother, who had however left. Made application for a British Transit visa to pass through Singapore and Hongkong en route to Dutch East Indies. At time of application Dutch authorities had not given him a visa for N.E.I. Stated that he wanted to proceed to N.E.I. to start as a dentist. Dutch authorities are suspicious of the man and have referred to Java for instructions.
